REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL FOR THE REVIEW OF NAMBOARD REGULATIONS

1. Introduction

The National Agricultural Marketing Board is requesting suitably qualified service providers/consultants to tender for the review of NAMBOARD's regulations.

2. Background

Guided by the NAMBOARD Act No. 13 of 1985, the operations of NAMBOARD in Swaziland are mainly aimed to catalyze sustainable economic development in the agricultural sector of the country. The organization provides an enabling environment for the development of farmers through the promotion of quality and sustainable production, processing, marketing and distribution of quality agricultural produce to markets nationally and internationally. This Act guiding NAMBOARD's operations is Government of Swaziland's obligation to protect citizens and the economy at large from possible and uncertain events associated with the use of products and services at the expense of local sustainable economic growth.

3. Scope of work:

The scope of work is outline in the terms of reference available from NAMBOARD Head Office in Manzini.

4. Response to the call for proposal:

Interested service providers and/or individual consultants must obtain a tender document for Request for Proposal detailing the tendering process for this assignment from the address below:

NAMBOARD Head Office,
Corner Masalesinkhundleni & Mbhabha Street, Manzini

Tender documents are available at non-refundable fee of E500.00

Date: The deadline for submission of proposals is 10 November 2017.

Enquiries: Enquiries pertaining this tender must be directed to the Secretary of the Tender Committee at (+268) 2505 2646/8
